

Phil Amico

Phil didn't discover acting until he retired from his day job and auditioned for, and won, the role of King at Medieval Times in Hanover MD. During his 9 year "reign" he got hooked and appeared in commercials, industrials, independent films, community and professional theater and began his career as a professional Santa. Highlights from that period include his feature film, "The Suffering", being accepted for streaming on Amazon Prime, winning a Best Supporting Actor award at the World International Music and Film Festival in Washington, DC in 2010 and appearing as Shylock in The Merchant of Venice. Phil would like to thank the Stonzek Theater for this opportunity to perform again.